To Whom It May Concern,

Richard Barry of Care&Net Advantage has been working with Essentia Technologies and our former company, Microban Canada Inc., for the past 10 years and has never let us down. He has a very responsible and reliable team which have always offered a very efficient service. He and his colleagues are very knowledgeable and quick to respond to our numerous demands in setting up a new business and maintaining it.

Since we have been serviced by Richard and his team, we have had the luxury of peace of mind and the reliability of a well-rounded company.

Yours very truly,

ESSENTIA TECHNOLOGIES INC.
